what makes this city a true hidden gem.

Activities for you:

- Boat Rides.

Enjoy the peacefulness and abundant wildlife of the Sado River with boat rides all the way from Setubal to Alcácer do Sal.

- Horse Riding.

Horse riding tours throughout the endless beaches and the dunes of Comporta are very popular in this area.

- Water Sports.

With the Alqueva dam 1h30 drive there is the possibility of practicing all sorts of water sports from wakeboarding to skiing.

- Golf Course.

One of the Golf Courses is located in Troia, right by the coast and facing the Atlantic Ocean. It offers its players 18 holes and a world class experience. You just need to have a short drive from Alcácer do Sal.

Another Golf Course is situated closer to Setúbal. The Montado Golf course was built in 2006. This 18 hole course has unique views of the plains of Alentejo and Setúbal.

Alcacer Village is a wonderful place for living. In the Sado Estuary there is also a population of dolphins who reside all year round. It is also one of the most important humid zones in the whole country for bird species. Here you will be close to the amazing nature and feel free and safe.
